

GET TO KNOW YOUR THERAPIST

AMBER REESE

Speech Language Pathologist

Amber is from Alexandria, Louisiana. She graduated from Louisiana Tech University with a B.A. in Pre-Professional Speech Language Pathology in 2012 and a M.A. in Speech Language Pathology in 2014.

She enjoys spending time and traveling with her husband, Greg, playing with their dog, Murphy, reading, and hanging out with friends. Amber enjoys working with pediatrics and early language.

She enjoys being creative with her patients and finds joy in working closely with families by teaching them fun and effective strategies to help their children become better communicators.

She loves learning more about her field and building meaningful relationships with patients and their families.
