

LAURIE MALER, Lead Therapist

Speech Pathologist, MS, CCC-SLP

Laurie is from Robinson, Texas. She graduated from Texas State University with a Master of Science in Communication Disorders 2007.

She enjoys running, being outdoors, and spending time with her kids. She and her husband have two children, Gavin, 6 years, and Ashton, 2 years.

Laurie specializes in apraxia, early child language, and articulation. She loves helping children feel successful and empowering parents by teaching them speech and language strategies so their children can accomplish anything!
