

GET TO KNOW YOUR THERAPIST

SHELBY RAYSHELL

Occupational Therapist, MOT, OTR

Shelby earned a BA from Austin College in 2013 majoring in psychology and minoring in exercise and sports science. She completed her Master of Occupational Therapy at Texas Tech University Health Sciences Center in 2016.

Shelby's area of specialty include experience in the inpatient rehabilitation setting. In her free time, she enjoys running, hiking, volleyball, the outdoors, spending time with family and friends, church, and volunteering in the community.

Favorite verse: "In the same way, let your light shine before others, so that they may see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven". Matthew 5:16