

GET TO KNOW YOUR THERAPIST

JENNA WHITE

Occupational Therapist (MOT, OTR)

Jenna received her undergraduate degree from Quinnipiac University with a Bachelor of Science in Health Sciences, May 2018 and a Master in Occupational Therapy in January 2020.

Jenna specializes in pediatrics and has experience with aquatic therapy. She has treated many children with sensory processing difficulties and Autism Spectrum Disorder.

Outside of work, Jenna enjoys traveling, watching hockey, spending time with her boyfriend and dog, and doing things outdoors such as hiking, paddle boarding, and camping.

Her favorite scripture is, “Let all that you do be done in love.”
Corinthians 16:14