

GET TO KNOW YOUR THERAPIST

KIM TAYLOR

Occupational Therapist, OTR, CHT

Kim graduated in 1987 from College of St. Catherine, now called University of St. Catherine in St. Paul, Minnesota with her degree in Occupational Therapy.

She obtained her CHT (certified hand therapy) in 1996 having completed a variety of courses in education for teaching and learning. She has an MOCCA certification which specializes in advanced practice skills in motor learning techniques, kinesiotaping, physical magnets, manual techniques, and orthotic fabrication.

Kim enjoys hiking, paddle boarding, gardening, horses and dogs. She loves being in the outdoors with family and friends and hanging out with her grandkids at the lake. She is a volunteer with 4H and other community activities.

Kim's favorite scripture includes, "Complete the cycle of gratitude by reaching out to give to others in the spirit of Christ." 2 Corinthians 9:12