LINDSEY GIUSTI

Speech Pathologist, CCC-SLP

Lindsey Giusti (pronounced juice-tee) graduated with a Masters degree in speech-language pathology from Baylor University in 2011.

Her areas of focus and specialty include articulation, language, fluency and stuttering.

Lindsey loves to spend time with her husband and infant son, and two big dogs! She enjoys going on long walks outside, reading non-fiction, listening to podcasts, and always trying new recipes of all different types.

Lindsey's favorite scripture is, "But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and His righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you."

-Matthew 6:33
